

Gallery No. 3

This gallery features intricate depictions of valiant Sikh fighters engaged in battles with their adversaries, particularly the Mughal and English forces, along with striking images of the First and Second Sikh-Anglo Wars. The gallery also present captivating photographs of revered Gurdwara Sahib and other historical sites left in Pakistan. The authentic weapons used by Sikh warriors in the 17th and 18th centuries are also displayed here with pride and honor for visitors and research scholars.

